Swatantrya Sainik Shri Kanhaiyalaji Ramchandra Innanini Mahavidyalaya. Karanja (Lad). Dist. Washim. established in 1983, is a premier educational institute in the rural areas of Washim, Akola and Yavatmal districts. It is a multi-faculty education centre imparting education in Arts, Commerce and Science both at the UG and PG levels having research facilities for doctoral research. The college, affiliated to S.G.B.A. University, Amravati, has been reaccredited with A grade by NAAC (CGPA 3.24). It has also been honoured as a College with Potential for Excellence (CPE) by UGC, New Delhi.

The College is providing educational facilities to the students having poor economical and educational background. Most of the students come from the rural area, particularly from the farmer community and backward classes. It is well known Institute in the region for its academic excellence and discipline. It works by incorporating social responsibilities, moral values, national integrity, religious harmony and gender equity in its curricular and extra curricular activities.

The Buddhist International School, Karanja (Lad) is a well known school for its activities of cultural exchange and social outreach. It is more concerned to instill human values among the children to make them the responsible citizens.

The College felt it necessary to enter into a Memorandum of Understanding with The Buddhist International School, Karanja (Lad) so as to facilitate the exchange of knowledge and culture and to conduct various social outreach activities for the development of student's future and to contribute the surrounding society.
